PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

The offender shall serve up to 90 days at Turning Point Fresno, Comprehensive Sanction Center or until discharged by the program director or probation officer. The offender shall comply with all program rules and procedures as directed by the probation officer, including but not limited to substance abuse treatment and payment of subsistence.

The offender shall complete 30 days at WestCare Residential Drug Treatment program or until discharged by the program director or probation officer. the offender shall comply with all program rules and requirements.

Justification: The offender was released from the Bureau of Prisons on June 17, 2004. Since her release, she has struggled to maintain stable housing, has not secured employment and has only payed $10.00 towards her $100.00 special assessment and $1882.42 restitution. The offender has additionally struggled to appear for random drug testing and counseling sessions.

On October 19, 2005, the probation officer conducted a home contact with the offender. During the contact, the offender failed to identify that she had a boyfriend staying with her at the residence (who was present in her bedroom), despite an inquiry by the undersigned as to who was present in the home.

Upon contacting the individual and obtaining his information, a records check revealed that he was a convicted felon with two outstanding warrants. It was also revealed by the individual that he was released from an involuntary placement at University Medical Center's (UMC) mental health unit on October 16, 2005. The offender was directed to report to the office that afternoon to further discuss the matter.

At the time the offender was to report to the probation office on August 19, 2005, the offender's daughter called to advise that the offender's boyfriend had gone into a rage and that Fresno Police Department was called and he was returned to UMC's mental health unit on another involuntary placement. The offender was shaken up over the matter to drive and no one else in the residence had a valid driver's license. The offender was instructed to report to the office on October 20, 2005.

On October 20, 2005, the offender reported to the office and was directed to have no further contact with the individual or any other person with a felony conviction, without the probation officer's permission. She was further admonished for lying about who was in the residence. A urinalysis test was requested, as the offender failed to appear for random testing.

The offender was unable to produce a sample after three hours of attempts and finally admitted to using methamphetamine. The offender became ill during her time in the office and she was directed to return on October 21, 2005.

On October 21, 2005, the offender voluntarily signed a Waiver of Hearing form to include up to 90 days at Turning Point Fresno Comprehensive Sanction Center and a 30 day placement at WestCare Residential Drug Treatment facility. She also voluntarily signed an admission statement to using methamphetamine on October 19, 2005, as well as, stalling on her drug test.

The objective of this modification request is to provide the offender a final opportunity to obtain help with her substance abuse problem and to comply with her conditions of supervised release. She is aware that further non-compliance will result in an appearance before the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Philip Mizutani
